

Sat Paul Mittal's Crowning Achievement at Nationals

Sat Paul Mittal School continues the saga of glory by winning prizes in PCRA National Competitions, 2016 organised by Petroleum Conservation Research Association, Ministry of Petroleum and Natural Gas, Government of India. A Nationwide Painting Competition in 2 categories, Junior (Classes 5-7) and Senior (Classes 8-10) and an Essay Writing Competition for Classes 8-10) was conducted by the organisation to promote the importance of conservation of fuel.

The topic for Painting Competition was 'Clean Fuel Better Life.' Aananya Chaudhery of Class V and Geet Monga of Class VI have received a Certificate of Achievement as the Best entry in Junior category and Disha Jain of Class IX received a Certificate of Achievement as the Best entry in Senior category.

In Essay writing Competition, Suhaavi Kaur of Class VIII and Navya Khanna of Class IX received a Certificate of Achievement as the Best entry wherein the topic was 'Save Fuel for Better Environment and Health.' The outstanding achievement of the Satyans is an acknowledgment of the school's firm commitment to nurture a culture of excellence and bring out the best in the child.
