

Whiz kid Namya brings laurels to the city!

Experience is the only process that can de-alienate information. So, to provide a holistic learning experience to the posterity with the intention of building a cybernetic tribe, fifteen students of Sat Paul Mittal School participated in the Whiz Juniors Competition, the biggest National hunt for India's tech genius.

With over 70,000 participants hailing from 81 cities including Mumbai, New Delhi, Chennai, Bangalore and Chandigarh; Satyan Namya Joshi of Class IV secured a whopping First Rank in the first round, qualified for the second round and made it to the Finals in Mumbai.

The finalists were felicitated at a stellar Award Ceremony held at NSCI Club, Worli, Mumbai presided over by distinguished dignitaries including Padma Shri Mrs. Gowri Ishwaran — CEO, The Global Education and Leadership Foundation (TGELF), Ms. Grace Pinto — MD, Ryan International Group of Institutions, Dr Jawahar Suriseti — Educationist and Advisor to the Government, Mr Siddharth Shahani — Director, Indian School of Design and Innovation, Ms Devita Saraf — CEO of Vu Televisions and Promoter of Zenith Infotech Limited and

After a battling it out in a vehemently-close competition, Sat Paul Mittal also bagged the coveted trophy of being the 'Top Tech Savvy School' of India and set a benchmark for all the existing schools of the city. Surely, the school has come one step closer to realize its vision of a being a future ready school.

Bhupinder Gogia
Principal