

‘OSCARS’ comes to Sat Paul Mittal School !

Amidst glitz and glamour, the stars descended on Sat Paul Mittal School as the school celebrated its Thirteenth Annual Day on Saturday, 2nd December, 2017. Dr. Girish Bali, Joint Director, Directorate of Enforcement, Punjab, graced the occasion as the Chief Guest. He was accorded a floral welcome by Mr. Rakesh Bharti Mittal, Chairman, Governing Council, Sat Paul Mittal School, Mr. Bipin Gupta, Vice Chairman, Governing Council, Sat Paul Mittal School and Mrs. Bhupinder Gogia, Principal, Sat Paul Mittal School.

Speaking on the occasion Mr. Rakesh Bharti Mittal, Chairman, Governing Council, Sat Paul Mittal School, stated that he was proud of the fact that the Satyans had made their presence felt in every nook and corner of the world and that the school had become a benchmark for others to emulate. The audience was taken on an amusing ride to experience the essence of Egypt, the vitality of Russia, the heroism and comicality of the Greeks, the Spanish melodies and Italian harmonies, the mystics of Turkey, the grandeur and vigour of the United Kingdom, the madness and magic of the United States and the distinctness of the great personalities at MADAME TUSSADES. A scintillating grand finale ‘ODE TO OSCARS’ drew the curtains to an electrifying starry night in a graceful manner. The chief guest applauded the multi-talented Satyans and stated, “It was indeed a noble concept of collaborating different cultures with the theme of Oscars and the Satyans have done full justice to it.” The vote of thanks was proposed by Mrs. Bhupinder Gogia, Principal, Sat Paul Mittal School. The programme culminated with the National Anthem.
