

A visit by the Author, Nomita Khanna at Sat Paul Mittal School

In an attempt to acquaint children to explore the route to their writing journey, a workshop was held in Sat Paul Mittal School on 17th July, 2019 for classes II – V. The resource person was Ms. Nomita Khanna, grandparent of Avyaan Garg(III –D) and Advika Garg(Upvan C). She is the author of an award winning book, ‘Lucky Costasaurus and the Golden Winged Vultures’. She emphasized the importance of observing one’s surroundings closely and relating it with things that are known to one. The tips were beneficial to the students and they could relate to the guidelines as she supplemented them with examples of writing prompts. The students enjoyed the session as it was a very interactive.
