Kriti Garg has earned the pride by getting a book 'Life' on poems published on an online website. In today's world when the teens put in all their focus to build up their social image while Kriti Garg, a student of Class X A of Sat Paul Mittal School has tried to look at the negatives of the society and voiced her concern against them. She has been blessed with an exceptionally deep and keen perceptive power. She perceives the ambience minutely and thinks of worldly affairs in a very sensible way. At a very young age, her writing expresses maturity.

She believes, "Poetry is never too less to convey deep messages."
