

Independence Day Celebrations at Sat Paul Mittal School

India- a land diverse both in its terrain and population, celebrates heterogeneity and unity simultaneously. Commemorating the country's rich history and exemplifying secularism and inclusivity, the students of Sat Paul Mittal School celebrated the 78th Independence Day with the spirit of patriotic fervour.

The Satyans of Classes PV-II engaged in a plethora of events, each skillfully displaying their devotion to the country, in both action and spirit. The students of Classes III-V presented a musical and dance extravaganza. The performance by Class V students provided a time for reflection on the progress and achievements of the nation since gaining independence and gratitude for the unsung heroes who helped us to achieve the freedom we enjoy today.

An Inter-house Group Song Competition was organised for the students of Classes VI to XII. Each house performed a unique patriotic music piece, contributing to the pervasive atmosphere of national pride and allegiance that filled the auditorium. Their melodious voices, perfectly co-ordinated and in unimaginable harmony, kindled a profound sense of solidarity and devotion among the audience. The patriotic fervour was heightened by the Inter- house Dance Competition which was also organized to mark the red letter day. The radiant energy and graceful movements of Satyans left the audience spellbound.

The auditorium resounded with cheers of joy as Chenab and Beas House were declared the winners of Inter house Group Song Competition. Satluj and Beas were declared the winners of Inter- house Dance Competition.

Ms. Bhupinder Gogia, Principal of Sat Paul Mittal School, addressed the august gathering and highlighted the significance of the day and the sacrifices made by countless individuals to achieve freedom. She encouraged the Satyans to align their goals in a way that benefits the nation's development. She stated that there is no greater honour than serving one's country and it is this service, repeated day in and day out that will drive our country towards even greater success. The event concluded with the National Anthem, reverberating throughout the campus.
