

Namya Joshi of Sat Paul Mittal School Conferred the prestigious National Youth Icon Award 2025

Satyan Namya Joshi, a Class XII student of Sat Paul Mittal School, has brought immense pride to the school by being conferred with the prestigious National Youth Icon Award 2025 by the High-tech Group of Institutions. The award ceremony was held on 12th January 2025 at the Constitution Club of New Delhi, commemorating National Youth Day, celebrated on the birth anniversary of Swami Vivekananda.

The National Youth Icon awards are given annually in recognition of the success achieved by youth in various fields of activities. Namya was chosen for this honor for her outstanding contributions and success in the field of Education.

This year altogether 30 distinguished young achievers from across the country including Namya were given the prestigious awards. The awards were presented by Union Minister for Tribal Welfare Jai Oram in the presence of several eminent dignitaries.

Ms. Bhupinder Gogia, Principal of Sat Paul Mittal School, congratulated Namya on her remarkable achievement and lauded her dedication, talent, and hard work. She also wished Namya continued success in all her future endeavours.

Namya's achievement reflects her remarkable determination and serves as a source of inspiration for her peers to pursue excellence in their chosen fields.
